

(0401740) Power System Quality (3 credit hours)

Definitions and fundamentals of power quality, types and sources of power quality problems, modeling of networks and components for harmonics analyses, load types and their impact on power quality, theoretical and mathematical basis for various indices and analyses techniques, power quality standards and measurements, harmonics and voltage quality, power quality improvements and mitigation practices.