

0402423 Automatic Control

(3 Credit hours, Prerequisite 0402421 Mechanical Vibrations)

This course includes the application of automatic control in production and industry with the topics of Laplace review, mathematical modeling of various systems, open-loop and closed loop control systems, transient-response and stability analysis and time and frequency analyses of control zone system, PDI controller and Analog computers