

0404211 Multivariate and Vector Mathematics

(3 Credit hours, Prerequisite: 0301201)

This subject extends the engineering mathematics of one variable to the mathematics of more than one variable. Applications should be given to maxima and minima, multiple integrals, vector and tensor analysis, line, surface and volume integrals, and to geometrical problems. Chemical engineering problem solving and applications. Complex algebra.