

0404775 Water and Industrial Wastewater Treatment Technologies

This course promotes the knowledge of students in the field of water and industrial wastewater treatment and recycling technologies. Topics include type and source of pollutants, disposal alternatives, prevailing regulations for disposal, regulations for recycling, unit operations for water and industrial wastewater treatment, Sludge utilization and Management.