

0403523 Construction Management

Management of the design and construction of civil engineering projects. Construction contracts, early project development and formation, design coordination preliminary and final estimate, project scheduling and cost analysis, packaging work, bid evaluations, bonds, insurance and legal consideration.