

0403473 Green Buildings

Students are introduced to the key principles of green building, including current standards and considerations for regional factors. They are also introduced to the five components of the green building that include energy, water, sustainable sites, materials and resources, and indoor environmental quality.