

0403362 Soil Mechanics

Composition and structure of soil, classification of soils, compaction in laboratory and field, water flow and hydraulic properties, effective stress concept, applied stresses in soil, swelling and compressibility behavior and properties of soils, consolidation and settlement analysis, shear strength of soils, introduction to soil exploration and slope stability. Prerequisite: strength of materials.